UNDER ARMOUR®
PERFORMANCE APPAREL

LighterFasterLongerBetter.

BEWARE OF IMPOSTERS! For nearly a decade, Under Armour, the original performance apparel, has kept players dry and light in every climate and condition. The moisture wicking technology is complex, but the program is simple: Wear HeatGear™ when it's hot, ColdGear™ when it's cold, and AllseasonGear™ between the extremes. There's also long-sleeve TurfGear™ for the scrappers out there, and LooseGear™ for when you're crushing it in the gym. No more sweat-soaked T-shirts, no more bulky layers, no more excuses for you not to be better. The advantage is undeniable.

In Memoriam

The Maryland lacrosse family lost a valued member in the Sept. 11 national tragedies. Dennis Buckley, a member of the 1984 and 1985 Terrapin teams, was lost along with thousands of others in the World Trade Center terrorist attacks. Dennis was a bond broker for Cantor Fitzgerald. He is survived by his wife Colleen and three daughters.

2002 Season Outlook

Under Cottle, Terps Aim For ACC Title, NCAA Bid

It's the dawn of a new era for Maryland men's lacrosse as the third-active winningest coach in the sport, Dave Cottle, takes the helm of the Terp program after the ACC's all-time winningest coach, Dick Edell, retired in September of 2001 due to health-related issues.

Cottle comes to College Park for his "dream job" with a winning attitude and competitive nature that helped him guide Loyola College to the last 14 NCAA Tournaments. He would like to continue his streak here with Maryland.

The Terps finished with a 13-3 record and a No. 3 ranking after playing in the NCAA quarterfinals last season. The Terps also spent some time as the No. 1 team in the nation during last season.

"Of course our goals for the season are to win the ACC championship, make the NCAA Tournament, the national semifinals and to win the championship," said Cottle, now in his 20th season on the college sidelines. "We are aiming to continue the winning tradition here at Maryland. This school has such a rich history."

Attack

Cottle has instituted some changes in the Terps' offense this season, beginning with the attack. He will be using many players in a variety of roles, rotating between the attack and the midfield.

"We will be moving players around to get the most out of them," the coach said. "We want to keep the best players on the field as often as we can and make them more complete players."

The starting attack will consist of the LaMonica brothers, Dan and Mike, both of whom are preseason All-Americans. They will be joined by sophomore J.R. Bordley.

Senior captain Mike LaMonica returns for his fourth year after a solid season in 2001, when he finished with 15 goals and five assists for 20 points.

Sophomore Dan LaMonica is the team's leading returning scorer with 51 points (25 goals and 26 assists) as a freshman last season. He shared the team's outstanding freshman award in 2001 and finished fifth in the nation among all first-year players in scoring.

"Mike LaMonica is a cagey veteran," said Cottle. "We will also move him back to midfield, where he will run with the second unit. Dan LaMonica has a great feel for the game and sees the field very well. He has great hands and great feet."

Bordley has emerged on the depth chart after seeing limited time as a freshman last season. He did show his scoring prowess in high school, leading The Landon School to the No. 1 ranking in the nation and the conference championship as a senior.

"J.R. Bordley is the quickest player in the program and his success will be a real key for us this season. I feel once he establishes his confidence he can have a great year."

Preseason All-American Mike Mollot, who has been the attack's quarterback for the past two seasons, has been moved to the first midfield, but will continue to see some time on attack.

Also in the mix on the attack are senior captain Mike Morsell and redshirt junior Matt Urlock, who missed all of last season with a torn ACL.

"Morsell is a smart player and hard worker, who plays well off the ball," said Cottle. "Urlock is a great finisher, who moves well with the ball and has a good shot."

Freshmen Mark Foster, the Terps' first-ever recruit from Colorado; Dave Matz, the first Terp from Vermont; and Andrew Schwartzman, who led Pikesville to the Maryland high school crown last sprin,g will also see time on attack.

Midfield

With some new philosophies on offense, junior Mike Mollot will run on the first midfield along with returning senior linemates Nate Watkins and Alex Poole.

"We want to utilize the best players as often as we can," said Cottle. "Mike can become a more complete player. He sees the field very well and understands the game and has tremendous awareness."

An honorable mention All-American last season, Mollot is the Terps' second-leading returning scorer with 40 points (19 goals and 21 assists). He will surpass the 100-point plateau early in the season as he enters the season with 87 career points.

Poole and Watkins will provide stabilizing forces on the first midfield. Despite not scoring much last season (Poole had 13 points and Watkins had seven), Cottle expects this pair of senior veterans will be instrumental in the team's offensive success.

"Alex has a great feel for the game and is a clever, versatile player, who we will use on the wing," said the coach. "Watkins has worked harder on his shot than any individual on the team. He has outstanding size and speed which we will need to use to our advantage."

Poole will also play a key role on the team's man-down defense as a short-stick defender.

The second midfield will feature Mike LaMonica with juniors Jamie Daue and Ryan Moran.

Daue saw time on the second midfield last season and tallied seven goals in his action. For Moran, he will be moving to offensive midfield after primarily playing defensive midfield along with his face-off duties over the last two seasons.

Preseason honorable mention All-American Mike Mollot.

Dan LaMonica, the Terps' leading returning scorer, is a preseason third team All-American.

"Dave is a veteran now with two years in the program," said Cottle. "He can be a key contributor who could score 20 goals for us. Moran is an explosive dodger and could score in the 15-20 goal range as well."

The third midfield is composed of senior Craig Hochstadt and juniors Matt Brock and Willy Passavia.

"All three could play key roles as the year progresses," said Cottle. "Matt has been a pleasant surprise while Willy has great skills and Craig has a strong right hand."

Junior Sean Leary, who has a size advantage – redshirt-freshman Peter Ellis, an athletic player, and freshman Matt Aksionoff, from Long Island, will also see time in the midfield. Junior Ian Healy (wrist injury) and Tommy Augustyn (mononucleosis) will redshirt this season.

Defensive Midfield

Junior Brett Harper returns for his second season as the starting long-stick midfielder. He ranked among team leaders in groundballs and is a strong takeaway player.

Harper will be backed up sophomore Lee Zink and senior captain Andy Burman, both of whom will play on close defense.

"Brett has an incredible competitive nature that really adds to his tenacity and aggressiveness with the long pole," said Cottle.

The short-stick chores will once again be handled by senior Carrington King and sophomore Paul Gillette, who was one of the team's award-winning freshmen last season.

"Both Carrington and Paul have experience," said Cottle. "They know their roles on the team and fill them very well."

Sophomore-transfer Drew Virk and sophomore Alex Melzer will also be utilized in defensive midfield sets.

Face-Offs

Senior Brian Carroll returns for his third year as the Terps' primary face-off specialist. Cottle is expecting a big year from Carroll with the graduation of many of the nation's top face-off men. Carroll, who won 51.4 percent of his draws last season, is one of a few face-off veterans among the nation's top teams and that could be a huge advantage for the Terps.

"We are in the fortunate position of having a veteran senior when it comes to face-offs," said Cottle. "It will be key for us to have a big year in the face-off circle."

Ryan Moran will be the second-string face-off man and will see more limited time this season as compared to the last two years. Also in the mix on face-offs are long-stick midfielder Brett Harper, junior Jim Sbarra, sophomore-transfer Drew Virk, and sophomore Jeremy Pastula.

Preseason first team All-American Michael Howley.

Defense

Close defense is the Terps' No. 1 strength heading into the 2002 season. Maryland features two top All-American candidates in junior Michael Howley and sophomore Chris Passavia. Last season the defense led Maryland to a 6.31 goals against average, second best in the nation.

"What else can you say when you have a World Team player and returning All-American in Howley and a preseason All-American in Chris Passavia," said Cottle. "We will be solid with them leading the defense. They are both very gifted players."

Howley, who was a second team USILA All-American and All-ACC selection last season and led the team in groundballs with 57, is also a weapon on offense with full-field rushes. A preseason first team All-American by several publications, Howley will represent the United States in the World Games this summer being held in Perth, Australia.

Passavia is perhaps the nation's fiercest and fastest checker, and was named one of the team's outstanding freshmen last season.

Joining the tough Long Islanders on the starting defense will be sophomore long-stick Lee Zink, who has earned the starting nod with hard work.

"He's our best position defenseman on the team" said Cottle.

Sophomore Dave Wagner and senior captain Andy Burman, who are both solid defenders will battle for playing time as the fourth and fifth defensemen on the depth chart.

Senior Rob Hoffman will play as a man-down specialist along with Burman. Juniors Andy Capelle and Frank Luciano will also see time in the close defense.

Freshmen Tyler Hereth and Gavin Webb offer a lot of size and will gain valuable experience in their first college seasons.

Goalie

Two seasons ago, the Terps entered the season with a goalie that had been a two-year backup with limited playing time. That player, Pat McGinnis, went on to be a first team USILA All-American in 2001.

Maryland is hoping for similar results with junior Dan McCormick, who has played just 121 minutes over the last two seasons as the backup to McGinnis.

"Dan has been very consistent between the pipes," said Cottle. "We are looking for him to have a good year. He has big shoes to fill but is ready for the challenge."

In his short stints, the natural southpaw has allowed just 6.50 goals per game.

Freshman T.C. Behm and junior Matt Rzepkowski, a transfer from Mount St. Mary's, will back up McCormick.

Senior captain Mike LaMonica is a preseason honorable mention All-American.

2002 Preseason Notebook

Five Named Preseason All-Americans

Maryland features five preseason All-Americans as voted on by the coaches for Face-Off Yearbook. First-teamer junior Michael Howley (Wantagh, N.Y.) leads the way. Sophomore Dan LaMonica (Parkton, Md.) is a preseason third team All-American. Senior Mike LaMonica (Parkton, Md.), junior Mike Mollot (Holbrook, N.Y.) and sophomore Chris Passavia (Stony Brook, N.Y.) are all preseason honorable mention All-Americans.

Last season, Howley was a second team USILA All-American and Mollot was an honorable mention All-American.

Howley was also named a preseason All-American by Lacrosse Magazine, which released just one team of stars.

Terps Ranked No. 6 In Preseason Coaches Poll

The Maryland men's lacrosse team is ranked No. 6 in the Face-Off Yearbook Preseason Top 25 Coaches Poll released by Inside Lacrosse. The Terps, under new head coach Dave Cottle, are one of three ACC teams in the top 10. Maryland, which finished the 2001 season ranked No. 3, will take on 10 teams ranked in the preseason top 25: No. 3 Johns Hopkins (April 13), No. 4 Towson (March 9), No. 5 Virginia (March 30), No. 9 Duke (March 2), No. 13 North Carolina (March 23), No. 14 Navy (April 5), No. 18 UMBC (May 4), No. 19 Bucknell (March 12), No. 21 Delaware (March 16) and No. 23 Hobart (Feb. 23).

The Terps were ranked No. 5 in the preseason poll released by Lacrosse Magazine.

America's Team

Of course the sport of lacrosse is a regional one, being played mostly in the Northeast, but Maryland's coaching staff has combed the nation far and wide to compose the 2002 Terp roster which features players from a school-record 11 states. Never before has Maryland had more than eight states represented on its roster. However, the 2002 team includes the first-ever recruits from California and Colorado, giving the team its first Western natives since the start of the program in 1924.

Coming from California are Peter Ellis and Drew Virk, both of whom are from Ross, Calif., and played at St. Ignatius College Prep in San Francisco. From Colorado is freshman Mark Foster, who prepped at Kent Denver.

Add to that freshman Dave Matz, who is the first player from Vermont to play for the Terps, and 11 states are represented in total.

Of the 11 newcomers on the roster for 2002, nine different states are represented.

Two other players on the roster previously were the first recruits from their states, as junior Brett Harper came from Upper Arlington High School in Ohio and junior Sean Leary came to College Park from Detroit Country Day School in Michigan in 1999.

DAVE COTTLE

HEAD COACH
SALISBURY '78
1ST SEASON AT MARYLAND/20TH SEASON OVERALL

Dave Cottle, the third winningest active coach in lacrosse, begins his first season at the helm of the Maryland lacrosse program in 2002. He was named the eighth coach in the storied history of Maryland lacrosse on Sept. 26, 2001 after a sensational 19-year stint as the head coach at Loyola College in Baltimore.

Cottle, 46, takes the reins from the ACC's all-time winningest coach, Dick Edell, who retired on Sept. 3, 2001 after 18 years with the Terps.

"Coach Cottle's 19 years of Division I head coaching success was an important consideration for the selection committee," said Maryland athletics director Deborah A. Yow. "We believe that he will lead Maryland to its next national championship in men's lacrosse. We appreciated hearing from a number of the former players who spoke highly about their experience of playing under Coach Cottle. In addition, coaches of stature such as Bill Tierney of Princeton spoke glowingly of Coach Cottle's leadership and coaching skills. We look forward to the future of our program under his direction."

Cottle, who said the Maryland position was his "dream job," is also thrilled to join the Terrapins. "I'm excited to come into a program with such a rich history as Maryland's."

Cottle led the Greyhounds to two national semifinal appearances including an appearance in the 1990 championship game. He enters the 2002 season as the third winningest active coach in the sport of lacrosse, winning 72.1 percent of his games for a 181-70 record.

He has led his teams to top-10 finishes in each of the past 14 seasons. The Greyhounds have finished with a winning record for the past 18 years dating to 1984. Loyola has also played in the last 14 NCAA Tournaments, entering the 1998 and 1999 tournaments as the No. 1 seed.

The backbone of Cottle's success has been his emphasis on the following: a strong work ethic, intelligent recruiting, attention to detail, and a creative approach to the game. He also is a true believer in the concept of "student-athlete." In each of the last three years, his team's graduation rate has been 89 percent or higher. Three of Cottle's players earned Academic All-America honors.

A Baltimore native, Cottle took over a struggling Greyhound program in 1983. Since posting a first-year record of 5-9, his only losing season, Cottle's Loyola teams have reeled off 18 consecutive winning seasons. The 1998 team's 13-2 campaign, which ended with a berth in the NCAA semifinals, saw Loyola reach a No. 1 national ranking, and the school's first No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

In 1988 the Greyhounds began their current run of 14 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. Loyola advanced to the national championship game in 1990, and it has made 10 NCAA quarterfinal appearances. In fact, Loyola has advanced to at least the national quarterfinals in seven of the past eight seasons.

The 1990 team, a potent mix of seasoned veterans and talented underclassmen, marched all the way to the NCAA championship game after making the school's first NCAA semifinal appearance. In the semifinals the Greyhounds staged an incredible comeback to beat Yale, 14-13, in overtime and advanced to the title contest against two-time defending champion Syracuse. The Orangemen ended Loyola's quest for the national title, but the Greyhounds' 1990 season always will be remembered.

In 1994 Cottle guided the Greyhounds to one of their best seasons ever. Loyola finished 11-2, recording wins against four teams that participated in the NCAA Tournament. The Greyhounds earned the nation's No. 1 ranking for only the second time in the program's history during that memorable campaign. Loyola concluded the regular season with a 17-15 victory over Johns Hopkins, the program's first victory ever against the Blue Jays. Ranked third in the final USILA poll, the Greyhounds earned a first-round bye into the NCAA Tournament before dropping a 14-13 overtime decision to Brown in the NCAA quarterfinals.

Cottle also guided his 1988 and 1989 teams to the postseason. The 1988 squad finished with a 12-2 record, earning Loyola's first NCAA Division I tournament berth. Loyola defeated Air Force for its first NCAA postseason victory before losing to Penn in an exciting quarterfinal. The Greyhounds concluded the campaign ranked fifth in the nation, and Cottle earned USILA Coach-of-the-Year honors, becoming the first coach in Loyola athletic history to receive a national award. Cottle was selected to coach the South team in the 1988 North-South All-Star Game.

The 1989 Greyhounds became the only Loyola lacrosse team to complete an undefeated regular season. The Greyhounds beat four nationally ranked teams en route to a perfect 10-0 mark. Loyola was ranked third in the final poll, behind eventual national champion Syracuse and Johns Hopkins. A quarterfinal loss to North Carolina ended Loyola's season, but the Greyhounds captured the attention of the lacrosse world with their best record ever.

Cottle came to Loyola in 1982 after leading Severn School to a 26-9 record and consecutive Maryland Scholastic Association championships. Prior to his success at Severn, Cottle served for two years as a graduate assistant coach, assistant varsity lacrosse coach and physical education instructor at his alma mater, Salisbury State University.

One of the finest players in Salisbury State history, Cottle was enshrined into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989. During his career he rewrote the NCAA record book, while earning All-America honors three times. He still holds many places in the Salisbury State record book, and was just the second player in collegiate lacrosse history to score over 100 points in a single season. The nation's leading scorer in 1975, he served as captain of the South team in the North-South All-Star Game.

Cottle received his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1978 from Salisbury.

He was an assistant coach for Team USA 1994, which won the world championship in Manchester, England. Cottle has addressed many lacrosse gatherings across the country, including the USILA Coaches' Convention, and he serves as a member of the All-America Selection Committee. In February of 1998 he was inducted into the Baltimore Chapter of the Lacrosse Foundation's Hall of Fame.

A graduate of Baltimore's Northern High School, Cottle lives with his wife, Lynn, daughters, Taylor and Tory, and son, Sean, in Fallston, Md.

What They Are Saying...

"Dave did a wonderful job with the Loyola team for years. We scrimmaged them for years and it was actually so spirited that we dropped it because it was almost like playing another regular season game."

– Dick Edell, former Maryland head coach

"Dave Cottle has been a close friend and mentor for 17 years now. The University of Maryland is fortunate to have the premier offensive mind in the game as its new head coach. He is not only a tremendous coach but also a person of the highest character who will bring out the best in his players."

– Bill Tierney, Princeton head coach

"There's not another coach in the country that I respect more, on and off the field, than Dave Cottle. Maryland has not only made a great selection, but it has made the right selection."

– Tony Seaman, Towson head coach

"Dave Cottle is a very special person. As good as he is as a lacrosse coach, he's an even better person. What he has done at Loyola in almost 20 years is unsurpassed in college lacrosse. He's an extraordinary coach."

– Joe Boylan, Loyola Director of Athletics

"As an alum and former Terrapin lacrosse player, I'm excited that Maryland hired the very best candidate available. I'm confident that Dave Cottle will continue the great Maryland lacrosse tradition and bring home some national championships."

– John Lamon, former All-ACC lacrosse player at Maryland

DAVE SLAFKOSKY

ASSISTANT COACH
JOHNS HOPKINS '74
19TH SEASON AT MARYLAND

Assistant coach Dave Slafkosky continues his association with the Maryland lacrosse program as he enters his 19th season with the Terps this spring. But this season will be different from the previous 18 at Maryland, as Slafkosky will coach without best friend Dick Edell on the sidelines, after the legend retired in September 2001.

Slafkosky and Edell celebrated their 25th year together in 2001 in leading the Terps to a No. 1 ranking at midseason. The duo was also featured on the cover of Inside Lacrosse magazine.

Edell and Slafkosky's relationship began when the two coached together at Army from 1977-1983. When Edell came to Maryland, his only request was that "Coach Slaf" join him. Granting Edell's only request was a critical decision that ensured unprecedented success for the program.

In 2002, Slafkosky returns to the defensive side of the game this season as defensive coordinator after serving as offensive coordinator last year. Under Slafkosky, All-American attacker Andrew "Buggs" Combs became the second player in Maryland history to score 50 goals in a season. This will be Slafkosky's third stint as defensive coordinator at Maryland. Prior to the 2001 season, he served as defensive coordinator for five straight seasons.

Originally, Slafkosky was named defensive coordinator when he joined the Terps in 1984. After leading Maryland to the NCAA semifinals in 1987 and 1989, Edell had his old friend to take over the offensive reins in 1991.

Without missing a beat, the Terps would soon experience the same success on the offensive end with Slafkosky at the wheel. Maryland would return to the NCAA semifinal in Slafkosky's first year with the offense in 1992. Under Slafkosky's tutelage, Mark Douglas would become a first-team All-American and establish the University of Maryland's single-season goal scoring mark of 51. In the same year, Rob Wurzburger would become the all-time career goal scorer with 137.

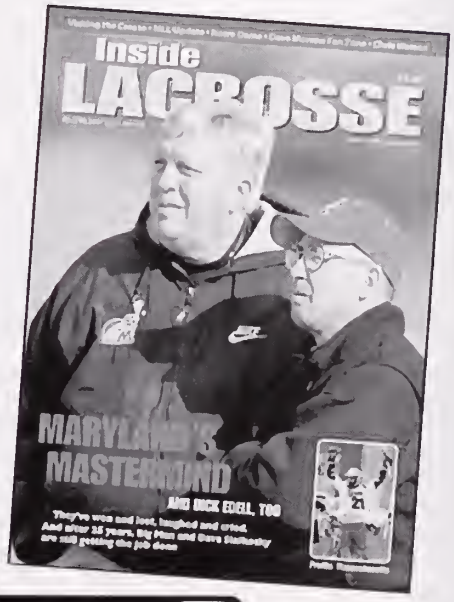
Maryland's offense would continue to be successful under Slafkosky's watch, qualifying for the NCAA's every year and reaching the finals in 1995. His most successful season came in 1995, with Marr's new insight, as Maryland shattered the school's offensive record books. The Terps scored 235 goals and produced All-Americans in Kip Fulks and Rob Chomo. After the '95 season, Coach Slaf switched back to the defensive side knowing Maryland was in great shape with Marr running the offense.

Maryland's defense has become its trademark with its intimidating physical play. The Terps reached the finals in 1995, led by its National Defenseman of the Year, Dan Radebaugh. Defenseman Dave LaChapelle's play earned him second team All-America honors in 1997 and propelled the Terps into the championship game for the second time in three years.

Slafkosky worked heavily with 1998 ACC Player of the Year Kevin Healy, who was also a second team All-American. Slafkosky added another All-American honoree to his resume as Chris Lamy was honored by the USILA following the 1999 campaign. The 2000 season saw the emergence of a new star in goal, Pat McGinnis, who was among the nation's leaders in save percentage and goals against average throughout the season. The year culminated with McGinnis one of two Terps named All-ACC. Along with McGinnis, senior defender Casey Connor was honored as well. The solid close defenseman earned second team USILA All-American honors. It marked the fifth straight year a Terp defender earned All-American accolades – all under the tutelage of Slafkosky.

A 1974 graduate of Johns Hopkins, Slafkosky led the Blue Jays to a national championship his senior year as a midfielder.

Slafkosky and his wife of 22 years, Michelle, have three children: Sarah, Kevin and Alex. Slafkosky continues to keep the memory of his eldest son Daniel close to him. A U.S. Marine, Daniel passed away in December 2000 at the age of 20.



Dave Slafkosky and Dick Edell were featured on the cover of Inside Lacrosse last season.

Jon Stainbrook

Assistant Coach

Nazareth '93 • 6th season at Maryland

Jon Stainbrook enters his sixth year with Maryland men's lacrosse program. Under his tutelage in 2001, the Maryland defense had a stellar season as one of the nation's top units. The Terps ranked second in the nation in goals against average, giving up just 6.31 goals per game. First team All-America goalie Pat McGinnis and second team All-America close defenseman Michael Howley had rock-solid seasons in helping Maryland to its near-record performance.

Maryland's man-down defense was also one of the nation's best under Stainbrook, killing off 81.9 percent of the penalties without allowing a goal. The unit ranked third in the nation by holding opponents scoreless in 77 of 94 chances with an extra man.

Stainbrook has been a vital part of the Maryland program for the past five seasons while serving on the defensive side of the ball.

During his time at Maryland, Stainbrook has coached several USILA All-Americans on the close defense including the likes of Dave LaChapelle, Chris Lamy, Casey Connor and Michael Howley, all second-team selections. Howley is a member of the United States World Team that will compete this summer in Perth, Australia.

Stainbrook joined the Terrapin staff in 1997 after serving three years at Division III power Nazareth College. Stainbrook helped lead the Golden Flyers to a 36-6 record over three campaigns, including three consecutive NCAA semifinal appearances and the national finals in 1995.

In his playing days, Stainbrook was a defenseman for Herkimer County Community College. He also played for Cortland State. Stainbrook served as a team captain with both squads.

Stainbrook graduated from Nazareth with a bachelor's degree in political science and a master's degree in education. He graduated in May 1999 from the Maryland School of Public Affairs with a master's concentration in international security and economic policy.

He is single and resides in College Park.

Graham Niemi

Assistant Coach

Maryland '97 • 1st season at Maryland

Graham Niemi returns to his alma mater to serve as an assistant coach in 2002. Last season, Niemi worked as an assistant coach under Dave Cottle at Loyola, helping the Greyhounds to an NCAA Tournament quarterfinal appearance.

The 1997 Maryland graduate will work primarily with face-offs and the offense this season.

Prior to joining Loyola in June of 2000, Niemi was an assistant coach at Washington College serving under J.B. Clarke for the 1999 and 2000 campaigns. At Washington, Niemi was the defensive coordinator, helping the Shoremen to back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths and a 27-7 overall record. In addition, Washington enjoyed a six-week run as the No. 1 team in NCAA Division III during 1999.

Niemi began his coaching career as the defensive coordinator at Anne Arundel Community College in 1998, helping the program to the junior college national championship.

At Maryland, Niemi graduated with a bachelor of arts in government and politics. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Terps under Dick Edell (1993-96). A starter on the defensive unit and at long-stick midfield for the Terps as a junior and senior, he helped the squad to consecutive NCAA berths. During his junior season Maryland advanced to the national championship games against Syracuse. As a senior in 1996, Niemi won the William Cole Memorial Award as the team's top midfielder in helping the Terps back to the NCAAs.

Following his senior season, Niemi served as an assistant coach while completing his degree in 1997. That season, Maryland again advanced to the NCAA title game to face Princeton.

Niemi is single and resides in Annapolis.

Terps Win Regular-Season ACC Title, Reach NCAA Q'Finals

The Maryland men's lacrosse program held its annual awards luncheon on Sunday, Oct. 21 at the University of Maryland Golf Course. It was an emotional day as recently retired coach Dick Edell came back to hand out the awards from the 2001 season, which saw the Terps win the ACC regular-season title and host an NCAA quarterfinal match with Towson.

Maryland's seniors Andrew "Combs" Combs, Jon Kemezis, Brian Kingsbury, Chris Malone, Pat McGinnis, Kevin Necessary and David Rose were all honored with special commemorative plaques from the team.

First team All-American Pat McGinnis took home the team's MVP award, the Edwin Powell Award after a stellar season in which he ranked second in the nation in goals against average and save percentage.

The Van Trump-Truitt Award as the best attackman was presented to Andrew "Buggs" Combs, who finished with 50 goals -- the second most in Maryland history and earned second team All-American honors from the USILA.

The William Cole Award was the team's top midfielder was awarded to Chris Malone Malone also won the award after the 2000 season. He was an honorable mention All-American this past season.

The Deckman-Silber Award for the team's best defenseman went to All-American Michael Howley. One of the nation's premier close defenseman, Howley was a second team All-American by the USILA in 2001.

The team's Scholar-Athlete Award went to Jon Kemezis for having the best GPA during his senior year.

The Faber-Heagy Award for the team's unsung hero was shared by Brian Kingsbury and Alex Poole.

The Larry Levitt Award was the team's best freshman was shared by three players: attacker Dan LaMonica, defenseman Chris Passavia and midfielder Paul Gillette. LaMonica was second on the team in scoring with 51 points, Passavia came on to have great season paired with Howley on the close defense and Gillette was a key player on the Terps' defensive midfield.

The Dan Snyder Award for most improved player went to defensive midfielder Carrington King and defenseman Kevin Necessary .

The newly-created Daniel Slafkosky Coaches' Award presented to the player who demonstrates the best work effort over his career went to defenseman David Rose. It was an emotional scene as Rose claimed the award from assistant coach Dave Slafkosky, whose son the award is named for. Daniel passed away in December of 2000.

At the conclusion of the event, new head coach Dave Cottle announced a new award the Richard Edell "Big Man" Award would be instituted for the 2002 season.

#8 Maryland 16, Air Force 3

DENVER - The No. 8 Maryland men's lacrosse team began its 2001 season in style with a dominating 16-3 win over Air Force in the first game of the Denver Pioneer Face-Off Classic in the team's first-ever trip out of the Eastern time zone. The Terps' superior play began less than a minute into the game as sophomore defensive midfielder Brett Harper laid a bone-crushing hit on Air Force's Alex DeManss, knocking the Falcons' midfielder into the ground. Then the scoring got underway as sophomore Mike Mollot scored the first of his hat trick, 2:59 into the game. After Air Force evened the game at 1-1 on a goal by John Agnew, Maryland scored 11 consecutive goals, building the 12-1 lead in the third quarter.

The 11-goal run featured the first two career goals by both freshman Dan LaMonica and sophomore Jamie Daue, two more by Mollot and four of the five goals Andrew Combs scored. Combs equaled his career high for goals with five (his sixth career hat trick), originally set at UMBC on May 6, 2000. Mollot added four assists in the contest to finish with seven points, which also ties his career high for points, originally set against Hofstra in the NCAA quarterfinals on May 14, 2000.

LaMonica, the Baltimore area's top player as a senior at Boys' Latin in 2000, finished with five points (two goals and three assists) in his collegiate debut.

Chris Malone also scored in the 11-0 run to extend his consecutive point-scoring streak to 21 games, dating back to 1999. Malone finished with two goals, his 14th career multi-goal game.

Freshmen J.R. Bordley and Ian Healy, both of the Landon School, also posted their first college points as Bordley assisted two goals and Healy added a helper on LaMonica's second goal. Sophomores Matt Brock and Nate Rullman also scored for the Terps. The goal for Rullman was his first after sitting out the last two years.

With the win, Maryland improved to 72-3-1 all-time in season openers, dating to 1924, winning the last eight. The Terps also improved to 4-0 all-time against Air Force.

#8 Maryland 10, #25 Denver 7

DENVER - Led by the brother combination of junior Mike LaMonica and freshman Dan LaMonica, the No. 8 Terp men's lacrosse team captured the 2001 Denver Pioneer Face-Off Classic championship with a 10-7 win over host No. 25 Denver on a beautiful sun-filled afternoon at Pioneer Field.

Both LaMonicas, who were named to the all-tournament team; each recorded four points in the win. Mike had three goals and an assist, while Dan had two goals and two points. Also named to the all-tournament team were Andrew Combs, who had eight goals in the classic, Pat McGinnis, who made 15 saves in two games, and Michael Howley. Senior captain Chris Malone was named the most valuable player after scoring twice in Saturday's 16-3 win over Air Force and handing out three assists in Sunday's win.

After Denver jumped out to a 1-0 lead, Maryland reeled off four goals including two from Dan LaMonica and one each from Mike LaMonica and Combs to take a 4-1 lead with 3:17 left in the first half. Denver stopped the run with a goal by Alex Stanton, but Combs added his second of the quarter on the extra-man with 2:33 left in the period to give the Terps a 5-2 halftime lead.

Senior Jon Kemezis opened the second half with a goal 2:30 into the half and Mike LaMonica added his second goal off an assist from Malone. Denver closed the third with two more goals to make it 7-4 heading to the fourth quarter.

The LaMonicas struck again as Mike and Dan scored back-to-back unassisted goals just 46 second apart to put Maryland up 9-4 with 10:29 left in regulation. Denver made it close with two goals to make it 9-6 with 2:46 left. But Mike Mollot scored off a pass from Malone to seal it with 2:28 left. Denver's Travis Taylor added a goal with 2:00 left to make it 10-7.

#8 Maryland 13, #7 Duke 5

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Behind a dominant defense and a high-powered attack, the No. 8 Maryland men's lacrosse team handed No. 7 Duke its worst loss in the series dating to 1984, beating the Blue Devils, 13-5 on a rainy afternoon at Byrd Stadium. The eight-goal margin of victory equals the largest between Maryland and Duke since March 9, 1984, when the Terps beat the Blue Devils, 16-4. That contest was the first game coached at Maryland by Dick Edell, who won his ACC-record-leading 161st game at Maryland on Sunday.

No. 8 Maryland's defense on man-down was amazing, as the Terps held Duke to just one goal on 16 extra-man opportunities, with the Terps drawing 16 penalties for 17 minutes. Overall, in allowing just five goals, Maryland held an ACC opponent to the fewest goals since North Carolina scored just four in a 5-4 Maryland win on April 1, 1989.

The offense did its part as well, as the Terps' starting attack of Andrew Combs, Dan LaMonica and Mike Mollot combined for 11 of the Terps' goals. Combs equalled his career-high of five goals for the second time this season and third in his career and now has 13 in three games this season. Combs scored both of Maryland's extra-man goals on Sunday and has all five of the Terps' extra-man goals this season.

Both LaMonica and Mollot each scored three goals and added an assist.

Maryland jumped all over Duke early, building a 3-0 lead in the first quarter behind those two extra-man goals by Combs and Mollot's first of the day. The Terps built a six-goal margin by halftime as LaMonica scored twice to make it 5-0 and Combs and Mollot scored to close out the half for the 7-1 Maryland lead at halftime.

The third quarter was more Maryland as Chris Malone scored 14 seconds into the half to make it 8-1 and Mollot scored his third of the game with 1:27 left in the third to make it 9-2.

In goal, Pat McGinnis was sensational, making 19 saves, including nine in the fourth quarter.

#3 Maryland 9, #20 Towson 7

TOWSON, Md. -- The third-ranked Maryland Terrapins men's lacrosse team got a 9-7 victory over 20th-ranked Towson off the strength of four goals from senior Andrew "Buggs" Combs, son of Towson football coach Gordy Combs, and another two goals fale in the game from sophomore Jamie Daue.

The Terps came out hot, with three goals in the first quarter, including two from Combs and a goal from junior midfielder Mike LaMonica . Combs ended the half, scoring his second of four goals on the day on a breakaway when the Terps' man-down unit caused a Towson turnover. Maryland's man-down unit continued its stellar performance this year, killing six of seven penalty situations they faced. In a solid, six-save first quarter, Maryland goalie Pat McGinnis held the Tigers scoreless, making several spectacular saves.

Towson settled its offense in the second quarter, starting off with a pair of goals from Josh Tankersley and Kyle Campbell in the first six minutes to bring the Tigers within one goal. Combs exploded again, scoring two more goals for Maryland. The first came off a rebound from a Mike Mollot near-miss. The second came off a beautiful pass courtesy of freshman attackman Dan LaMonica from behind the net to Combs, who had the angle from the left corner. Towson fought back for another goal before the horn signalled halftime. This time Brad Monaco found Hunter Lochte for the goal, just seconds after the Terps came back to full strength from a penalty situation. At halftime, the score stood Maryland 5, Towson 3.

Towson came out hard in the second half with some double-team pressure that tripped up the Terps and allowed the Tigers to get within one goal again when Tankersely netted another unassisted goal. Maryland's Craig Hochstadt ripped a shot from 15 yards, fitting it into the lower right corner of the net past Towson keeper John Horrigan for the Terps' first score of the half. Daue took a pass from Mollot in the center and converted from seven yards out to make it a 7-4 Maryland advantage heading into the final quarter.

Towson threatened the sluggish Terps in the fourth, scoring two to open the action with Monaco and Kyle Campbell hitting to bring the Tigers within one goal again for the third time in the game. Daue drove through traffic right down the middle to score another critical goal for Maryland at the 5:27 mark. Towson's Brad Reppert tried to spark a late Towson comeback, scoring at the 4:20 mark to make the game a tight one again, with the Terps holding on for the final minutes. Mike LaMonica gave the Terps some insurance, netting the day's final goal at the 00:16 mark to make it a 9-7 win for the Terps.

#3 Maryland 10, Delaware 4

NEWARK, Del. - Senior Andrew "Buggs" Combs scored a career-high six goals including four in the fourth quarter in a span 3:34 to lift the No. 3 Maryland men's lacrosse team to a 10-4 win at Delaware. Combs continued to lead the nation in goals with 23. Maryland moved to 5-0, its best start since an 8-0 start in 1998. Delaware fell to 1-5.

The teams played a tight ball-control game with Maryland holding a 5-3 lead heading to the fourth quarter before Combs opened the floodgates. He scored his third goal of the game off a pass from sophomore defenseman Michael Howley to make it 6-3 with 9:19 left in regulation. Combs then took a pass from freshman Dan LaMonica with 8:24 left to make it 7-3. Sophomore Mike Mollot netted the Terps' eighth goal with 6:56 remaining, before Combs scored two more goals just 31 seconds apart at the 6:16 and 5:45 marks. Both goals were assisted by the LaMonica brothers (Dan on the first and Mike on the second).

Maryland and Delaware played a very conservative first quarter that was scoreless until Combs scored with six seconds left in the first quarter off a pass from Mollot. Delaware tied the game early in the second quarter, but Maryland scored three of the next four goals as Dan LaMonica, Combs and Alex Poole scored to make it 4-2 at halftime. Delaware's Jason Lavey and Dan LaMonica traded third quarter goals to set the stage for Combs' fourth-quarter barrage.

#3 Maryland 11, #12 North Carolina 7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Once again, Andrew Combs led the Maryland attack, as the No. 3 Terrapins (6-0, 2-0 ACC) topped the No. 12 North Carolina Tar Heels (4-3, 0-2 ACC) on a windy and overcast afternoon at Byrd Stadium, 11-7. Combs, the nation's leader in goals, added four more to his total, giving him 27 in just six games. Combs also picked up his first assist of the season on Dan LaMonica's second goal of the game, to give him 28 points and the national lead in overall scoring.

Maryland's defense was once again stellar, allowing seven or fewer goals for the sixth time in as many games this season. Led by senior goalie Pat McGinnis, Maryland has allowed just 5.5 goals per game this season. McGinnis was once again at his best as he made 18 saves, including seven crucial stops in the fourth quarter.

Defense is where the Maryland offense started, as Michael Howley scored his first career goal, just 1:06 into the game, to give Maryland the lead it would never relinquish. In taking the early lead, Maryland has trailed for just 6:34 in a total of 360 minutes this season.

Howley's goal started the run as Maryland built a 5-1 lead on Combs' first two goals of the game and two more tallies from LaMonica and Chris Malone. North Carolina battled back to cut the lead to two at halftime, 5-3, on goals by Pat Jackson and Andrew Lucas.

Combs came out strong in the third quarter, scoring again on a beautiful set up from Malone just 4:11 into the quarter. After UNC's Mac Hammer made it 6-4, Maryland scored three goals in a row to close out the third quarter. Freshman Paul Gillette scored his first career goal at the 7:33 mark and Mike Mollot and Combs added two more to make it 9-4 after the third.

#1 Maryland 8, #13 Bucknell 4

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- New ranking, same story. The newly-minted No. 1 Maryland men's lacrosse team used the scoring prowess of Andrew "Buggs" Combs and solid defense, and the Terps improved to 7-0 with an 8-4 victory over No. 13 Bucknell. Combs finished with three goals, giving him hat tricks in all seven games this season and raising his nation-high goal total to 30. Maryland's defense, which came into the game leading the nation in goals against average, lowered its average to 5.28, giving up just four goals to the Bison.

Maryland and Bucknell alternated goals for the first half and the start of the third quarter before the Terps scored the final four goals of the game. Combs put Maryland ahead for good with his third goal of the game with 4:54 left in the third quarter to make it 5-4. Mike Mollot scored in the third and the fourth quarters and Chris Malone added another third quarter tally to give Maryland that 4-0 run to end the game and the 8-4 win.

Nate Watkins opened the scoring just 3:01 into the game, but Bucknell came back to tie it as John Terracciano scored his first of two in the game just 25 seconds later. Alex Poole made it 2-1, but again Terracciano answered. Combs scored his first of the game to make it 3-2 after the first quarter.

#7 Virginia 7, #1 Maryland 2

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - First-year goaltender Tillman Johnson saved 16 shots, including several at point-blank range, to help No. 7 Virginia defeat No. 1 Maryland 7-2 before 2,580 fans at Klöckner Stadium. The goal total was the lowest for a Maryland team since the Terrapins fell to Army 10-1 in 1948.

Fourth-year midfielder Hanley Holcomb and first-year attackman Justin Mullen provided the offense for Virginia (4-3 overall, 1-0 ACC), netting two goals apiece. Two of attackman Conor Gill's four assists came on goals scored by Mullen, including the first goal of the game, which came with 10:00 remaining in the first quarter. Holcomb tallied his first goal minutes later on an unassisted, left-hand crank with 5:08 to play in the first.

Maryland finally beat the Cavalier netminder on a goal by attackman Dan LaMonica with 9:09 remaining in the third period to make the score 5-1. The Cavaliers answered seven seconds, after however, as midfielder David Jenkins took the face-off, scooped up a ground ball and fed Ian Shure to wrest momentum away from the Terrapins and give the Cavaliers a 6-1 lead.

The Virginia defense kept Maryland attackman Andrew Combs in check, holding the nation's leading scorer without a point until he scored with 26 seconds remaining on a deflected shot. Combs, who has netted 31 goals on the season, had scored at least three times in each of Maryland's seven prior games.

#6 Maryland 6, #12 Navy 6

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - Same two teams, same score for three years in a row -- Maryland 6, Navy 5. It's ironic, but for the third year in a row, Maryland and Navy played a low-scoring defensive game with the same score. Maryland's Andrew "Buggs" Combs scored the go-ahead goal to put Maryland (8-1) up 5-4 with 7:27 left in regulation.

Combs was lying on the ground trying to push a loose ball into the goal as Navy goalie Jon Higdon had strayed out of the goal. After he was unable to push the ball in, Combs scooped it up and scored his nation-leading 32nd goal. Maryland got an insurance goal -- the eventual game-winner -- as Dan LaMonica scored with 6:44 left in regulation to give the Terps a 6-4 lead. Dave Pittard of Navy (5-4) scored with 2:48 left for the 6-5 final.

"It wasn't a game of artistry, but we got the win," said head coach Dick Edell. "We have the nation's leading scorer and the nation's top goalie in my opinion in Pat McGinnis and they contributed to this team of 44 players coming away with a hard fought win. We played with a lot of heart and I'm very proud of them."

Maryland held off a Navy attack in the final minute as the Mids had two shots that went wide. The Terps also killed off the final 13 seconds in the man-down situation. McGinnis made six saves on the afternoon.

The Terps and Mids played their classic defensive styles through the first half as Maryland built a 3-2 lead. Chris Malone evened the game at 1-1 in the first quarter after Navy's Greg Conklin scored just 35 seconds into the game. Mike LaMonica and Craig Hochstadt scored in the second quarter to give the Terps a 3-1 lead before Adam Borcz of Navy closed the first half, scoring with 8:53 left in the second quarter.

Maryland sophomore Ryan Moran had a great game on face-offs, winning seven of eight from the second through fourth quarters.

The win was Maryland's ninth straight over Navy in the series. The Terps' nation-leading goals against average dropped to 5.44 and McGinnis lowered his nation-leading goals against average to 5.56.

#5 Maryland 10, #2 Johns Hopkins 9

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- No. 5 Maryland opened the fourth quarter with four consecutive goals including the final two from the LaMonica brothers, junior Mike and freshman Dan, to top No. 2 Johns Hopkins, 10-9 before an enthusiastic crowd of 7,219 at Byrd Stadium and before a live television audience on WMAR-TV in Baltimore. The win, in the 97th meeting between the schools, was the seventh straight in one-goal games for the Terps, dating to last year and moved Maryland's record to 9-1 overall, while Hopkins fell to 5-3.

Trailing 8-6 entering the fourth quarter, Maryland ripped off four consecutive goals. Chris Malone scored 1:01 in the fourth to draw Maryland within one at 8-7 with his second goal of the game. Then Andrew "Buggs" Combs took a pass from Malone and beat Hopkins' goalie Rob Scherr to tie the game with 11:27 left in regulation. Mike LaMonica put Maryland ahead for the first time since early in the third quarter as he fired home a shot from the left side of the net to put Maryland ahead, 9-8 with 6:20 left in the game.

Just 1:21 later, his brother Dan LaMonica then beat Scherr from nearly the same spot from the left side of the goal to put the Terps ahead 10-8 with 4:59 left in regulation with his third goal of the game. A late goal from Hopkins' Bobby Benson, his fourth of the game, brought the Blue Jays to within one at 10-9 with less than two minutes left. But the Terps used their nation-leading defense to secure the win.

Senior goalie Pat McGinnis was named the WMAR Player of the Game after a stellar performance in which he made a season-high 21 saves, including seven in each of the third and fourth quarters.

"We hadn't been competitive with Hopkins over the last two meetings, they were debacles (losing 13-3 in 1999 and 20-11 in 2000)," said head coach Dick Edell. "But tonight, we erased out bad memories of those games with a complete performance. We played a great game and to beat Hopkins means so much. We clicked and Pat McGinnis proved again why he's the best goalie in the country."

The game opened up with a very offensive style as each team scored three times from three different players. Combs, Craig Hochstadt and Malone scored for Maryland. Hopkins' goals came from Conor Denihan, Benson and Wedin.

Alex Poole reclaimed the lead for the Terps as he took a pass from Combs (his second of three assists in the game) and beat Scherr midway through the quarter. The Terps held the lead until Wedin tied it with five seconds left in the quarter to make it 4-4 at the half.

ACC Semifinals (Orlando, Fla.)
#3 Maryland 12, #11 Virginia 8

ORLANDO, Fla. - The No. 1 seeded Maryland men's lacrosse team advanced to the ACC championship with its first win over Virginia since 1998 with a thrilling 12-8 victory at Disney's Wide World of Sports in the tournament semifinals. The nation's leading goal scorer Andrew "Buggs" Combs tallied four goals to lead the Terps, scoring once in each quarter and running his total to 38 for the season. Virginia was led by Conor Gill, who scored three goals and added an assist for four points.

Maryland ripped off seven goals in a row bridging the second and third quarters after falling behind 4-3 with four minutes left in the first half to take a 10-4 lead with 4:12 left in the third quarter.

During the Terps' 7-0 run, Dan LaMonica scored two of his three goals and Mike Mollot scored twice, including the eventual game-winner to make it 9-4 with 5:35 left in the third quarter. The highlight of the run came as Maryland's Nate Watkins made a three-quarter field rush down the center of the field and beat Virginia's goalie Tillman Johnson as time expired to give Maryland a boost at intermission and a 5-4 lead.

Maryland's goalie Pat McGinnis made 13 saves, including six in the fourth quarter.

The first half was a fierce battle with heavy hitting and high intensity. The half ended with a bang as Watkins made a three-quarter field rush down the center of the field and beat Johnson as time expired. The first half featured three ties at 2-2, 3-3 and 4-4.

Mollot opened the scoring with a wraparound from the left side of the cage to beat Johnson midway through the first quarter.

ACC Championship (Orlando, Fla.)
#12 Duke 10, #3 Maryland 6

ORLANDO, Fla. - The No. 2 seeded Duke Blue Devils (10-4) upset the No. 1 seeded Maryland Terrapins (10-2) to capture their second ACC men's lacrosse tournament at Disney's Wide World of Sports. Senior midfielder Scott Bross was named the tournament MVP after a sensational weekend winning 22 of 34 face-offs. He won 11 of 16 on Sunday in helping the Blue Devils to their second title ever, with the other coming in 1995. The backbreaker was a second quarter in which the Blue Devils outscored Maryland 6-1 to build an insurmountable 6-2 halftime lead. Maryland was only able to get within two at 7-5 at the end of the third quarter.

Dan Chemotti and Kevin Brennan each scored two goals and had assists for three points apiece to lead Duke.

Duke went on that 6-1 run in the final 6:34 of the second quarter to take a 6-2 lead at halftime. The Blue Devils scored on six consecutive shots including two goals from Chemotti. The Devils barraged Maryland goalie Pat McGinnis as the four other Duke goals came from Kevin Brennan, Kevin Cassese, Alex Lieske and Terrence Keaney.

Mike LaMonica gave the Terps a 1-0 lead on the only goal of the first quarter as he ripped a laser past Duke goalie Matt Breslin off a pass from Mike Mollot.

#6 Maryland 12, Mount St. Mary's 4

EMMITSBURG, Md. -- The No. 6 Maryland men's lacrosse team survived an early scare from Mount St. Mary's and topped the Mountaineers, 12-4 in the Terps' first-ever trip to the school on a brisk and cloudy afternoon.

After the Mount jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first 1:43, Maryland ripped off 10 of the next 11 goals to build a 10-3 lead early in the fourth quarter. The 10-1 run featured hat tricks from both Andrew "Buggs" Combs and Chris Malone. Combs, who has led the nation in goal scoring for most of the season, now has 42 in his senior season, which ranks as the ninth-best single season total in the 76 years of Maryland men's lacrosse.

For Malone, it was his first three-goal game of the season and third of his career. Malone also added an assist for a four-point day. Dan LaMonica scored twice and added an assist for three points.

The Terps' other goals came from Jamie Daue, Mike Mollot, Ian Healy and Jim Sbarra For both Healy and Sbarra the goals were the first of their college careers.

Maryland recorded a season-high 51 shots and scooped up 51 groundballs. The Terps scored on two of four man-up chances.

#6 Maryland 10, RV Yale 5

NEW HAVEN Conn. -- The No. 6 Maryland men's lacrosse team improved to 12-2 overall in 2001 with a 10-5 win at Yale on a sunny afternoon. For the Terps, the 12th win sets a school record for victories in a regular season. Maryland had previously won 11 regular-season games several times, most recently in 1998 (when the Terps established their school record for overall wins in a season, when they went 14-3 an advanced to the NCAA title game).

Junior midfielder Mike LaMonica recorded his second hat trick in three games with three goals. Sophomore attacker Mike Mollot recorded six points in a game for the sixth time in his career with two goals and four assists against the Bulldogs.

The Terps jumped all over the Bulldogs from the opening whistle, as the Terps scored seven of the game's first eight goals including a pair from Mollot to take a 7-1 halftime lead. Mollot also set up Mike LaMonica's first goal which gave the Terps a 1-0 lead just 1:42 into the game. Maryland's other first half goals came from Alex Poole, Andrew "Buggs" Combs, Jon Kemezis and Dan LaMonica.

Yale cut the lead to as a small as four early in the fourth quarter at 8-4, but Maryland quickly answered. The Terps got back-to-back goals from Mike LaMonica and Chris Malone in the span of 28 seconds to make it 10-4 with 12:19 left in the game. Yale's Adam Werder finished the scoring with an unassisted goal with 6:20 left in regulation.

#6 Maryland 14, #20 UMBC 4

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- The No. 6 Maryland lacrosse team made a strong statement for a first-round bye in the NCAA Tournament with a convincing 14-4 routing of state rival No. 20 UMBC on a hot and steamy afternoon at Ludwig Field. The Terps move to 13-2 and set a school-record for regular-season wins and stand one short of the all-time single-season win record of 14 set in 1998. UMBC finishes at 5-7.

It was a wonderful senior day for the Terps, as 14 different players recorded points as goals came from the sticks of nine players. Leading the way once again in his final regular season game was senior All-American candidate Andrew "Buggs" Combs, who scored five goals and added an assist for six points. With the big day, Combs surpassed the 100-point plateau for his career at Maryland and now has 104 entering the NCAA Tournament. With the five goals, Combs now has 48 on the season tying him with Scott Hochstadt (1998) for the fourth-best single season in Maryland's storied lacrosse history. He is now four short of the all-time Maryland single-season goal record of 52 set by Mark Douglas in 1991.

Also having a stellar day on the passing end was freshman Dan LaMonica, who handed out a personal best five assists. Three of his five helpers came on Combs' goals in the first half. Also, LaMonica's five-assist day was the best by a Terp this season and the most assists by a Maryland playerssince Mike Mollot had five against Towson on March 11, 2000.

NCAA Quarterfinals
#6 Towson 12, #3 Maryland 11

COLLEGE PARK, Md. -- Kyle Campbell scored his fourth goal with 27 seconds remaining to lift the No. 6 seeded Towson Tigers to a thrilling 12-11 victory over the No. 3 seeded Maryland Terrapins in an NCAA quarterfinal game at Byrd Stadium.

Towson midfielder Hunter Lochte tied the game with 44 seconds remaining after the Terps regained the lead midway through the fourth quarter for just the second time since the game's opening minutes.

Towson (14-3) broke open the game in the first quarter, scoring five consecutive goals after Alex Poole gave the Terps an early edge with an unassisted goal 1:09 into the game. Maryland responded with a scoring flurry late in the first quarter, registering three goals in a 22-second span to pull within 5-4 after one quarter.

After falling behind 8-5 with 4:03 remaining in the second quarter, the Terrapins sandwiched four consecutive goals around halftime and took a 9-8 lead midway through the third quarter on Mike Mollot's only goal of the game. The teams were tied at 10 after three quarters before Andrew "Buggs" Combs gave Maryland the lead with his 50th goal of the year, becoming only the second player in Maryland history to score 50 goals in a season.

Freshman Dan LaMonica scored two goals and three assists for the Terrapins and senior Chris Malone finished his college career with a hat trick.

The Terps finished the 2001 season with a record of 13-3 after setting a regular-season record for wins with 13.

LEADING THE WAY INTO THE 21ST CENTURY

A CARNEGIE RESEARCH-I UNIVERSITY
MEMBER, ASSOC. OF AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES (AAU)
FLAGSHIP OF THE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF MARYLAND
NCAA DIVISION I ATHLETICS

"Strive for clarity, but accept and understand ambiguity."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Fourteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions, and accept ambiguity."

And we also hope you enjoy the journey.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

THE CAMPUS

The University of Maryland, College Park is the most comprehensive institution of higher education, research and service in the state. The university offers 100 undergraduate majors, 88 master's programs and 69 doctoral programs in 13 colleges and schools.

The university is one of only 30 public research universities that are members of the prestigious 58-member Association of American Universities. It is classified as a Research-I university by the Carnegie Foundation by virtue of the range of its baccalaureate programs, the amount of federal support received and the number of doctoral degrees awarded each year, sharing that honor with the top research universities in the country.

Among the public universities in the Association of American Universities, Maryland ranks among the top in percentage of African-American undergraduate students. In addition, the university has the largest number of African-Americans and other minority members among its peers.

FLAGSHIP STATUS

In 1988, the University of Maryland, College Park was designated as the flagship institution for the University System of Maryland. As well as pursuing a serious research mission and continuing its high level of service to the state, the university rededicated itself to providing the highest quality graduate and undergraduate education. Increased undergraduate opportunities for research and individual study; the development of the College Park Scholars Program and the expansion of the University Honors Program; the genesis of Honors Humanities and Gemstone; the creation of CORE, the general education program; and the establishment of the Center for Teaching Excellence all affirmed the legislature's designation of flagship.

LIBRARIES

Seven libraries make up the University of Maryland library system: McKeldin (main) Library, Architecture Library, Art Library, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library, Hornbake Library, Performing Arts Library, White Memorial (Chemistry) Library.

These libraries constitute the largest university research library institution in the Washington metropolitan area, providing vital resources to researchers, visiting scholars, and businesses throughout the region. The libraries' holdings include more than 2.5 million volumes, 24,000 subscriptions to periodicals and nearly 5 million items available in microfilm format.

RESEARCH

Opportunities for conducting research abound at the University of Maryland, College Park, and in the surrounding area, both for faculty to advance their own expertise and bring their insights into the classroom, and for students to begin their exploration of their special interests with practical experience. On campus, special facilities and a number of organized research centers, bureaus, and institutes promote the acquisition and analysis of new knowledge in the arts, sciences and applied fields.

The university's enviable location – just nine miles from downtown Washington, D.C., and approximately 30 miles from both Baltimore and Annapolis – enhances the research of its faculty and students by providing access to some of the finest libraries and research centers in the country.

SERVICE

Programs of public service are central to the overall mission of the university. The philosophy is reflected in the wide array of programs and initiatives that benefit the state's business, agriculture and education communities.

With more than 90 high technology firms in the three-county area of Montgomery, Prince George's and Frederick counties, the university has found abundant opportunity to extend its business and technology outreach programs to the region. Many of these programs are part of the Engineering Research Center, which operates the Technology Advancement Program and the Maryland Industrial Partnerships, programs designed to provide Maryland entrepreneurs and small businesses with research facilities, technical assistance, administrative support, and access to technology that will advance their economic base.

The Institute for Systems Research has formed partnerships with major corporations, including Lockheed Martin, Westinghouse, BF Goodrich, Hughes Aircraft and Dupont to apply advanced systems research to solving industry problems in the fields of communications, manufacturing, controls and robotics.

The University of Maryland features a diversity of cultural and recreational activities. Four art galleries, more than 200 annual musical performances and countless dance and theater productions, expose audiences to the broadest range of programs in the arts. Additionally intercollegiate, club and intramural sports provide students of all levels an opportunity to participate as spectators or athletes.

A WIRED WORLD

Students at the University of Maryland are part of an academic community that enjoys free access to networked computer resources and facilities that are among the best in the country. Free computer accounts enable users to store class work on a networked server, download classroom support materials and other electronic information from campus networked resources such as inforM, or send electronic mail to faculty, fellow students or friends at other universities.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT C.D. MOTE JR.

When C.D. "Dan" Mote Jr. became the 19th president of the University of Maryland on Sept. 1, 1998 he proclaimed it a university "on the move." Three years later, under his guidance, Maryland continues to move – at an ever accelerating rate – on the field, in the classroom, in the community, and in the world.

The University of Maryland is the state of Maryland's most important asset, says Mote: "The future of the state depends on this university."

Fulfilling that responsibility is a big job, but it's a role that Mote is accustomed to, having spent his entire academic career at the University of California at Berkeley, where he earned all his degrees, taught engineering and eventually became vice chancellor for University Relations before coming to Maryland.

One of Mote's first tasks here was to serve on a governor's task force to examine the funding and organization of the University System of Maryland. The result was a 1999 law reaffirming the university's flagship status and a commitment to become one of the best public universities in the nation.

As president, Mote is committed to achieving that goal by creating a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, continuing to emphasize the highest quality education for students, strengthening the university's internal and external connections, and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere.

The university's progress in each of these areas can be measured by the quality of its programs; the stature of its faculty; the talent of its students; partnerships with business; impact on the state's economy; its ability to apply discoveries to global, national and regional problems; and its world-class, state-of-the-art facilities.

Examples:

- Maryland has 60 programs ranked in the top 25 nationally by U.S. News and World Report.
- The faculty includes a Nobelist, six Pulitzer Prize winners and nearly two dozen members of the national academies in their fields.
- The average GPA of entering students improved from 3.00 to 3.72 from 1990 to 2000, while the average SAT score rose from 1173 to 1244.
- In the past year, the university helped to attract Fujitsu Laboratories of America to open a research facility in College Park and helped to establish the Joint Global Change Research Institute, a research partnership between the university and the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory.
- In FY 2001, the university received more than $300 million in research grants and outreach funding.
- The university is adding spectacular new facilities such as the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, scheduled to open in 2002; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering; extensive renovations to the Adele Stamp Student Union; and new parking structures.

Under Dan Mote's leadership, Maryland today is truly the state's greatest asset.

Maryland athletics director Deborah A. Yow was recently awarded the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award by the United States Sports Academy.

Deborah A. Yow

Athletics Director
Elon '74 • Eighth Year at Maryland

Dr. Deborah A. Yow is in the eighth year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland ... a year in which she also successfully concluded her presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, an organization with a membership of more than 6,100 athletic administrators representing 1,600 colleges and universities in North America and Mexico.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony to her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability. Likewise, her election to the presidency of NACDA is an indication of the respect with which Dr. Yow is regarded in intercollegiate athletics and education in the U.S. and Canada.

Last year, Yow was named Female Sports Executive of the Year by the editors of Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal. In addition, she received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

As a former member of the NCAA Management Council and NCAA Division I Budget Committee, Yow presented a strong voice for excellence and integrity at the highest levels of intercollegiate athletics. In these national roles she has represented the University of Maryland and the Atlantic Coast Conference with a balanced and proactive voice.

Since taking over at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization.
- Balanced all seven of the department's annual budgets (the first balanced budgets for the Terrapins in 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $33 million annually and the sizable prior debts have been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided to student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of nearly 90 percent during her tenure.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 15 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased 140 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by 275 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 25 teams.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area.

The Maryland Department of Athletics has made remarkable progress under Yow's leadership. Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past seven years, Dr. Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the top 10 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and leader, she clearly models these principles. She was recently singled out by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the leading athletic administrators in the U.S. A former basketball coach, she began her coaching career at the high school level in North Carolina before taking over as head women's coach at the University of Kentucky in 1976. She also achieved an outstanding coaching record as head coach at the University of Florida. She later moved into athletic administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, followed by a highly successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics, management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Terrapin athletic program, Yow recently observed, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets and our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the Maryland Educational Foundation and M Club members who serve and give liberally. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our successes ... and the basis for our bright future."

ROB MULLENS

EXEC. SENIOR ASSOC. A.D./ CHIEF OF STAFF

Rob Mullens, who joined the Terps' staff as assistant athletics director for business in the summer of 1996, is in his second year as executive senior associate athletics director. He was named chief of staff in February 2001.

Mullens' responsibilities include assisting the athletics director with the overall administration of the department's operations in addition to assisting with the operation of football and men's basketball.

As the chief financial officer, Mullens is directly responsible for the department's $32 million annual budget and the capital debt repayment plan. Mullens also works closely with the athletics director on Title IX compliance and long-range forecasting and planning.

Mullens graduated cum laude in 1991 from West Virginia with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's degree in sport management at West Virginia in 1993. In April of 2000, he was named the 2000 Distinguished Alumnus of the West Virginia Sport Management Program.

Prior to his appointment at Maryland, he was senior business manager and the chief budget officer for the University of Miami (Fla.) athletic department (1994-96).

His background in athletics includes serving as an intern for the senior associate director of athletics at Kentucky (1993) and as a graduate assistant to the assistant athletic director for business at West Virginia (1992-93). Prior to pursuing a career in athletics, Mullens worked for the accounting firm Ernst and Young.

He is married to the former Jane Pearson, who is the Terrapins' assistant athletic director for compliance and senior women's administrator.

The Maryland Athletics Department will move into the state-of-the-art Comcast Center in the summer of 2002.

Academic Support & Career Development

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

The mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in Cole Field House. It features a study center that includes 24 desktop computers, private study cubicles, a tutoring center, classrooms, and individual offices for four professional academic counselors, a learning specialist, an assistant program coordinator, and two graduate assistants. In addition, the center's extended site is located in the Gossett Football Team House, and includes office space for three professional counselors and a 16-station desktop computer center.

Mission

The mission of the unit is (1) to provide quality developmental programs and need based services that will enhance the opportunity to earn an undergraduate degree, (2) offer career development opportunities and (3) support the psychosocial growth of student athletes through special initiatives.

Staff

Nine full-time professionals, two graduate assistants, tutorial support staff and student associates comprise the unit's workforce. Don Pearman is the ASCDU liason for the lacrosse team.

ASCDU & The University

Primary academic advising is provided by professional advisors assigned to each student athlete by his or her home college, school or department. The ASCDU counselors serve as an important support network that coordinates and implements transitional and developmental programs to address the academic and career development needs of student athletes. In cooperation with the Office of Records and Registration, ASCDU monitors academic progress of student athletes to assure that NCAA, ACC, and University rules and regulations are met.

Location

The primary ASCDU unit is conveniently located on the ground floor of Cole Field House where student athletes have access to various resources and services. Each academic counselor has private office space in order to insure meeting privacy. A study table room is staffed by proctors and arranged to maximize student focus and concentration. The facility also houses a tutorial room devoted to servicing the learning needs of student athletes. The staff maintains two computer resource laboratories with a total of 40 personal computers containing up-to-date software packages. In addition, ASCDU coordinates a laptop computer service that provides each team access to laptop computers while traveling to away competitions.

There is also a satellite computer room in the Gossett Football Team House. Three of the nine ASCDU professionals are currently housed in the building.

The Future

In the summer of 2002, the $124 million Comcast Center will become the new home of the ASCDU unit. A 7,000 square foot wing has been developed to replace the current space in Cole Field House. The new home of ASCDU will be conveniently located on the floor where offices of coaches for 20 sports will also be placed. The close proximity was designed to facilitate communication among ASCDU staff, coaches and student athletes.

Strength & Conditioning

Collegiate lacrosse has evolved to the point where total physical preparation is necessary to successfully compete on the Division I level. It has become extremely important to strength and conditioning coach Craig Fitzgerald that all of the Terrapin athletes are prepared through training to maximize their athletic development in terms of strength and conditioning. The high level of dedication by the members of the lacrosse team has brought about spectacular achievements in the weight room and in competition.

The objective of the strength and conditioning program for lacrosse is based on the enhancement of performance as well as the prevention of injuries. Fitzgerald makes every attempt to accommodate the different training needs of each individual athlete.

The preparation of a student-athlete to compete in lacrosse goes beyond strength and power training in the weight room. Speed improvement, flexibility, plyometrics, nutrition, agility and conditioning are also important ingredients in the preparation of the lacrosse team here at Maryland. The strength and conditioning staff puts a great emphasis on improving the quickness of the Terps through increased mechanical efficiency and the improvement of acceleration of maximum velocity.

Maryland ASCDU has over 40 computer work stations available for student-athletes.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Maryland's Byrd Stadium may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Jason Yellin in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 1112 Cole Field House, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-7062. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.

Services: The Media Relations Office will provide complete statistics at the conclusion of every home game. Programs containing rosters and event notes on each team will be provided for the working media.

Fax Machine: The Media Relations Office has one facsimile machine, located in Room 1112 of Cole Field House. The fax number is (301) 314-9094.

Mediateamlink.com: Releases, statistics and other sports information from all ACC schools as well as other conferences and institutions around the country are available by accessing www.mediateamlink.com. You can have updated documents delivered directly to your e-mail and/or fax machine the moment they are updated. You can also view documents on-line. MediaTeamlink is FREE to all accredited media. Log on to www.mediateamlink.com if you do not already have an account, and click the "Sign Up Here" button and complete the short form.

Terrapin Fan Phone: For up-to-date reports and other Maryland athletic department information, phone the Terrapin Fan Phone at (301) 314-TERP.

BROADCAST INFO

GAME OF THE WEEK

WMAR-TV (channel 2) in Baltimore will continue its bold concept of telecasting college lacrosse in the state of Maryland by presenting the Lacrosse Game of the Week. Beginning Saturday, March 2 and continuing through Saturday, May 4, WMAR will broadcast 13 games live. Included in the package are two Maryland games. The Terps will be featured on WMAR three times: March 9, when Towson comes to Byrd Stadium, April 5 when the Terps host Navy and April 13 as part of a men's-women's doubleheader vs. Johns Hopkins. The seven-time defending NCAA champ Terp women face the Blue Jays at Noon, followed by the men's game at 3 p.m..

Former All-American goalie Quint Kessenich joins WMAR's broadcast team of Scott Garceau and Keith Mills to bring the Baltimore area the greatest lacrosse television coverage ever.

Keith Mills (above) along with Scott Garceau and Quint Kessenich will call the WMAR Game of the Week again in 2002.

A Salute To Dick Edell, Head Coach (1984-2001)

Successful, passionate, emotional, triumphant, endearing, engaging, genuine, loyal, devoted, dedicated, animated and affectionate. No matter which word you use to describe Dick Edell be sure to add one more — winner.

Known as "Big Man," Edell touched many lives during his sensational tenure as Maryland's head lacrosse coach from 1984 through 2001. The ACC's all-time winningest coach, he led the Terps to 13 NCAA Tournament appearances and three NCAA Championship games. He will always be one of the game's great legends.

Dick Edell retired on Sept. 3, 2001 after 18 wonderful years on the Maryland sidelines.
